

When one's mother has died

Lord as I remember my mother who has died, I thank God for the wonder of her being, that she was created in your image and likeness. Now as I mourn for her, I pray that I may recall how she loved and cherished me throughout my life. Comfort my lonely heart as I grieve for her. I believe that the bond of love between parent and child endures forever.

Amen.

Composed by Sr. Sheila McAuliffe R.S.C